

The Moral Status of Persons

Perspectives on Bioethics

Edited by Gerhold K. Becker

The Moral Status of Persons: Perspectives on Bioethics

Editor: Gerhold K. Becker

The Moral Status of Persons: Introduction

Gerhold K. Becker

Part I Foundations of Personhood

One Can We Have a General Conception of Personhood in Bioethics?

Ruiping Fan

Two Are All Human Beings Persons?

Johannes H. C. Sun

Three Personal Identity as Basis for Autonomy

Michael Quante

Part II Eastern Perspectives on Personhood

Four Why Chinese Thought is Not Individualistic: Answer 1 of n

Chad Hansen

Five Jen and Perichoresis: The Confucian and Christian Bases of the Relational Person

Edwin Hui

Six We-Consciousness and Terminal Patients: Some Biomedical Reflections on Japanese Civil Religion

Shin Ohara

Seven Reshaping the Concept of Personhood: A Chinese Perspective

Renzhong Qiu

Part III Theological Perspectives on Personhood
EIGHT	“Made in the Image and Likeness of God”. The Concept of the Person in Catholic Social Teaching and Its Implication for Health Care Policy	Dennis P. McCann
NINE	“The Worth of a Person” — A Speciesist Prejudice? Theological Comments on the Current Controversy over Bioethical Concepts	Friedrich-Wilhelm Graf
Part IV The Boundaries of Personhood in Health Care and Research
TEN	Gene Therapy and Personal Identity	Ruth Chadwick
ELEVEN	Human Cloning, Harm, and Personal Identity	Jonathan K. L. Chan
TWELVE	Brain Injury, Brain Degeneration, and Loss of Personhood	Derrick K. S. Au
THIRTEEN	Using and Benefitting Animals	Elizabeth Telfer