Dr Daniel Callahan

Dr Daniel Callahan co-founded The Hastings Center in New York and was its President from 1969-1996. Currently Dr Callahan is the Director of its international programs and Senior Associate for Health Policy. The Center is a research and educational organization which examines ethical issues of medicine, biology and the environment. Dr Callahan has been elected to the Institute of Medicine of the National Academy of Sciences, and is a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. An expert in ethical issues, he has published extensively. His books include “The Troubled Dream of Life: In Search of a Peaceful Death”, “False Hopes: Why America’s Quest for Perfect Health is a Recipe for Failure”, “The Goals of Medicine: The Forgotten Issues in Health Care Reform”, “Setting Limits: Medical Goals in an Aging Society With ‘a Response to My Critics’” and “What Kind of Life: The Limits of Medical Progress”.